SHIELD

Life is a long, empty road which is to be filled with memories. These memories will come mostly from our young adult years—our school years. As we grow older, contributing what we can to society and reaping our rewards, we are at the same time filling the scrapbooks of our minds with memories in preparation for a time when memories will be the most important things in our lives.

What better time to begin a “scrapbook” than the time when one first realizes that he is growing up. But how will he know? He will know when he can see a tree and see the tree not as a single unit within a forest, but as a part of a picture—the picture of life. He will know when he can read a word and understand not the meaning of a single word, but the meaning of a story—the story of life.

These are moments to be cherished, to be tucked away as memories. These are the gems that one discovers hidden along his road and will continue to discover, for this is what life is all about. One lives to learn and discover things about himself and from these things he learns about life. But one day the seemingly boundlessness of his road will end. Then he will be able to leaf through his scrapbook of accomplishments, close his book, and pass it on to eternity’s library. He will be able to say, “Once there was a time . . . and what a time it was . . .”

The Shield is our scrapbook.

GRADUATION COUNTDOWN

THE SENIOR CLASS 1969

The end of our senior year marks the end of an era. The time has come when we must look at ourselves as adults and contribute our talents to the world. We are no longer children to be guided; we are adults who must take it upon ourselves to teach and guide others.

Our senior year has been a time in which each individual can "feel" his way into an adult world. He can try on the role of a leader or he can simply follow. He can inspire new ideas or he can take the ideas of others and turn them into reality. Whatever the goal of each individual may be, his senior year can be his test period.

But all has not been responsibility. There have been moments of excitement during football games, there has been the fun of dressing for halloween; there have been the feelings of unity working in a class play. And then the supreme moment of happiness of graduation - tears for losing old friends and guarded security, and smiles for gaining a new life and new goals. Yes, we have reached the end of an era, but our faces are lifted toward the future.

Believe it or not!

"... And these are some pictures of me at the beach ..."

"Why do you mean, my hair's too long?"

"GOSH!"

"What did Sammy say after that?"

A bad case of sleep walking;

No smouchin' in the hall, Kuper!

"Which one of you has the steering wheel?"

"Where's the counter—Inaugural Ball this year?"

"So help me, if you take my picture!"

"Wonder what Dana's doing?"

"Look Ma, no cavities."

SENIOR ADMINISTRATION DAY

"Ha, betcha thought I was passing out interims, but I'm only taking attendance."

"Why is it always me?"

"Watch out for the mouse!"

"They can't be that dumb!"

"Look, I ought to one more time and it'll be another zero!"

"Come up and see me sometime, big boy."

"Today a teacher, tomorrow the world!"

"You have the nerve to flunk one of my tests?"

"What am I doing here?"

"Will the real Q. Zilch please stand up?"

"And now for my next magic trick!"

ANNAPOLIS

"All students must wear church clothes and bring sunglasses as we will be sitting on the Pittsburg side facing into the sun." As the day of Oct. 19 dawned, the students who had been thus advised wondered who had stolen the sun and replaced it with the devil's tears. One could hear grumbling comments as the seniors prepared to board the buses which would take them to Neptune's city. "Let's postpone the trip, it's too cold," "Hey, John, where are your sunglasses?" But once in Annapolis, the wet bedraggled students found refuge and warmth in the dry restaurants of the neighborhood. This was no day for church clothes or sightseeing. Finally, dry, full of food, and contented, the seniors again board the buses en route to the game. Once there, the Pittsburg fans heard a hearty fanfare from Lee, but not for the Pittsburg team. Despite the dreary atmosphere, the seniors cheered Navy on to victory and returned with good spirits.

"Me Tarzan, Me Jane"

"As I see it in my crystal ball"

"Here comes Peter Cotton Tail"

"The Thinker"

"Is it true blondes have more fun?"

HALLOWEEN

"Whatever happened to the school dress code?"

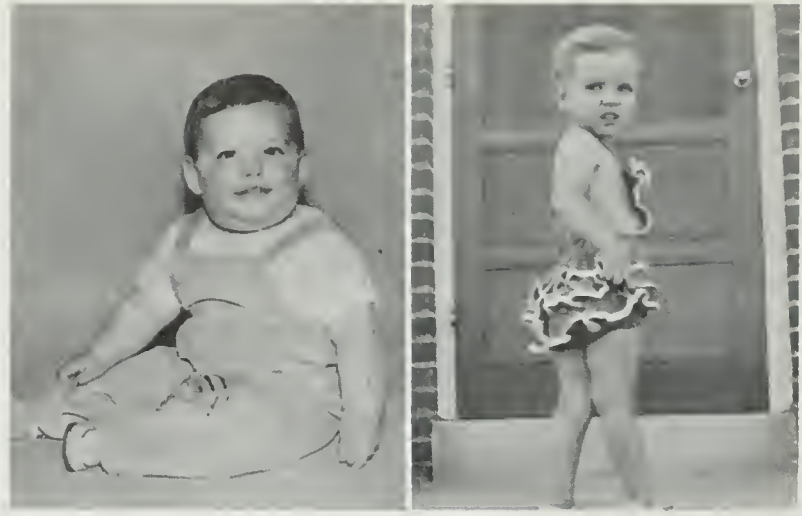

"Yum, Yum eat em up"

IT WAS A UERY GOOOD YEAR

Branded by the wheelin' dealin' press as the Washington Irving immigrants headed by a brazen bunch of notorious collegiate hoods, we began our first year of heavenly high school. We took our place as the thumb sucking, lower than low Freshmen and stepped into a world of elevator tickets ("Listen kid, I'll give ya the best deal on season passes, so stick with me!"), bloody bathroom brawls ("Hey look, here comes a two-legged paper towel!"), and athletic defeat ("Aw you call that a football team, looks more like a diaper brigade to me!"). But we glumly stood up for our rights and won a little recognition by beginning the "best darned Freshmen paper in the history of Lee", and by placing third in the annual Homecoming float competition.

With one year under our belts we marched bravely into our second year as maybe-some-day-we'll-make-it-Sophomores. If we thought our Freshmen year was bad, this year may have a little edge. As a Sophomore, you're virtually unknown. Freshmen are picked on, Juniors and Seniors battle each other in a fight to the finish, but Sophomores are practically nonexistent, ("Hey did you see that Sophomore?" "Nope, didn't see a thing except a water fountain"). Nevertheless, our courage ran high and the Sophomore class charged through the year making money on the Variety Show, sock hops, and car washes.

Aha, finally at last!!! We're Juniors, we've arrived. Now we've got to print up the elevator passes and pick on the Freshmen. By this time we've all got our own cars and every Junior knows where the "place" is, ("Meet ya at Ebbits"). We've got a newspaper to publish ("Prattling Putnam and Blabber Bluntnose are real swingers on the gossip scene"), class rings to order ("I like the fire blue spinel, but the blue zircon matches my eyes"), and a Junior-Senior basketball game to win. By the time our Junior year screeches to a halt, the Roadrunners of '69 have three years of gruesome experience, not to mention a fat treasury with which to start the big year.

Now we've really got it made! The Roadrunners are the cream of the crop, and everyone has prepared for the future. Some of the most cherished memories are first place in float competition, victory in the Junior-Senior rivalry, a swinging lounge, and money for the biggest and best prom that a Senior class has ever had. Annapolis will never be the same, Senior administration turned the school topsy-turvy and Halloween showed the true colors of every Senior. And then, the big day, 6/9/69—graduation. Tears and joy flood the faces of every Senior as they parade through the gravel to their seats on the football field. '69—It was a very good year!

CLASS OF 1970

The Class of 1970 started their junior year on an enthusiastic note. In the summer of their sophomore year, they enhanced their treasury for the coming year by having a carwash. In preparation for their future they took the preliminary college boards in the fall and the college boards in the spring.

With their senior year quickly approaching, many of their junior activities included many things which would give them pride in their "big" year. Suggestions for a class symbol were studied and the GROG emerged as the victor - ready for a hopping year! A new tradition to be carried out by the Junior class was begun this year. An Honor Guard, composed of members of the junior class was formed in order to uphold the privileges of the senior class. Another first for the juniors was a ring dance. In order that they would be able to receive the rings earlier and with a formal ceremony the junior class ousted the idea of a prom in favor of a formal ring dance.

All in all, the juniors are a proud and fiercely spirited class and they are on their way to being one of the best senior classes at Lee!

"The sky is falling."

As we took our second step into Lee, our motivation and effort surpassed that as when we were freshmen.

Our second year, although enjoyable, was also exasperating. In biology we became master surgeons at dissecting frogs . . . just after lunch. In geometry we first learned the art of and then became experts at drawing straight lines, frustrating the teachers . . . and using up erasers. After gym the girls found themselves twice as slow in dressing and three times as fast running down the hall as they did as freshmen. We found ourselves sleeping through English, and wondering why it seemed so hard.

All in all it had been a fine year for the Class of '71. We will continue to prosper and grow in spirit and make the Class of '71 a memorable one at Lee.

CLASS OF 1972

This year's freshman class arrived at Lee just out of Washington Irving and ready to show the other classes what they were made of. The class had much to be proud of - their cheerleaders, class officers, homecoming attendants, and of course their great football team, the finest freshman team Lee has ever had. The members of the Class of 1972 were overflowing with school spirit which they exhibited at the pep rallies. The officers and class sponsors worked hard to make this the best freshman class Lee has had. The class sponsored sockhops, car washes, and bake sales to earn money for the treasury. The class of '72 will work hard for the next three years to set high standards for the future classes of Lee.

Sponsors: Miss Gossett, Mr. White.

The beginning of the 68-69 school year was marked by the establishment of an eighth grade class. This class has proved to be both willing and eager to uphold the fine traditions at Lee. The class of '73 started the year off by exhibiting marked enthusiasm at the football pep rallies. The magazine drive was largely a success due to the efforts and initiative of the eighth grade students. Under the guidance of Cheryl Hartman, the eighth grade class president, a successful pep club was created, cheerleaders were elected, new service clubs were formed and bake sales and dances were held. As exhibited by these activities, it has been an unusually productive year for the class of '73.

Class officers: L. Hillmer (Hist.), L. Gallagher (Sec.), C. Hartman (Pres.), G. Miller (Treas.), B. Baker (V. Pres.)

"Spirit Booster"

The theme is patriotism and what better theme could be chosen to express the deep emotional pride, the fierce competition, and the widespread anxiety of a student body during Homecoming.

Homecoming is only a word for a feeling—a feeling of pride in seeing the halls decorated with the colors of the country and the school, a feeling of warmth and closeness in a spirit building bonfire, and the feeling of competition in a group effort to present the Homecoming Follies. And then the big night—the pinnacle of all emotion—the Homecoming game. All is silent on the field and in the bleachers, as the pride felt in the hearts of all floats through the air on the notes of the National Anthem. The silence breaks and anxiety prevades the air. The Senior Class rejoices as the winners of the float competition are announced and then everyone watches as the two gridiron teams face each other in a battle for victory. Halftime marks the end of the week long anxiety of four girls as one of them is crowned Homecoming Queen of 1968. The night is climaxed in defeat but not all has been defeated, for there remains the spirit of patriotism. The week is ended with the Homecoming Dance—a final tribute to a feeling that cannot be expressed, but only felt.

Although time can claim the days and send them to their place in the past, it cannot claim the memory of the spirit that lives in the hearts of the students.

Silke and her American family—The Shimer's

"We were ten days on the boat and very excited about coming to America. Slowly morning came and we saw the Statue of Liberty and the Manhattan lights in the light of dawn," These are the words of Silke Meader, Lee's Foreign Exchange Student from Heide, Germany. An enthusiastic addition to Lee's organizations, Silke is a member of Lancer Tri-Hi-Y, Keyettes, the German Club, the International Relations Club, and the Varsity Basketball team. Among her interests are sailing and football - both of which are new and exciting to her. Lee is very proud, as well as pleased, to have Silke here in America as a guest in our school.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Theresa's host family—The Romero's

The Springfield Chapter of the American Field Service at Lee this year sent their representative, Theresa Jones, to Peru. Theresa spent the summer in freezing winter weather in Puno, Peru with the Romero family. Among her activities were bullfighting, trips to Lima, Cuzco and Manchu, Picchu and visiting ranches. While there, Theresa attended a Catholic Girls' School, taught in an English Language Center and did an English radio program. Theresa was the perfect girl to represent America in a foreign country and Lee has every right to be proud of her.

OUTSTANDING TEENS

AWARDS

The DAR and SAR Awards are given each year to the two seniors who have shown the qualities of service, leadership, honor, and scholarship. Several students are selected by the awards committee and voted on by the faculty. DAR Good Citizens are eligible to be district winners. The girl selected as the state winner is awarded a $100 savings bond or a $75 scholarship. The state winners are eligible for national honors which includes a $1000 scholarship. Lee's DAR winner was Theresa Jones and Rick Nay was the SAR winner.

Each fall the optimist clubs throughout the country sponsor Youth Appreciation Week during which special honor is paid to worthy students. This year the Springfield chapter chose Sally Darden and Greg Reed as Lee's representatives on the basis of their leadership, scholarship, and citizenship.

Each year students are selected who have distinguished themselves in leadership and community, church, and school activities to compete in state competition. One outstanding teen will receive a trophy from the governor. From the 50 states winners, 10 will be selected as the outstanding teens of America and will receive a $1000 scholarship. Paul Sisk, Kathy Buchanan, and Bill Kitchens are this year's winners who compete in state competition.

IT'S ACADEMIC

Lee's "It's Academic" team, comprised of Paul Sisk (Capt.), Dwight Hamner, and Chris Fox, faced stiff competition early in March as the team confronted St. Steven's and Albert Einstein High Schools.

Although the Lee Lancers went down in defeat, the spirit remained strong among the attending members of the student body. Maybe next year . . .

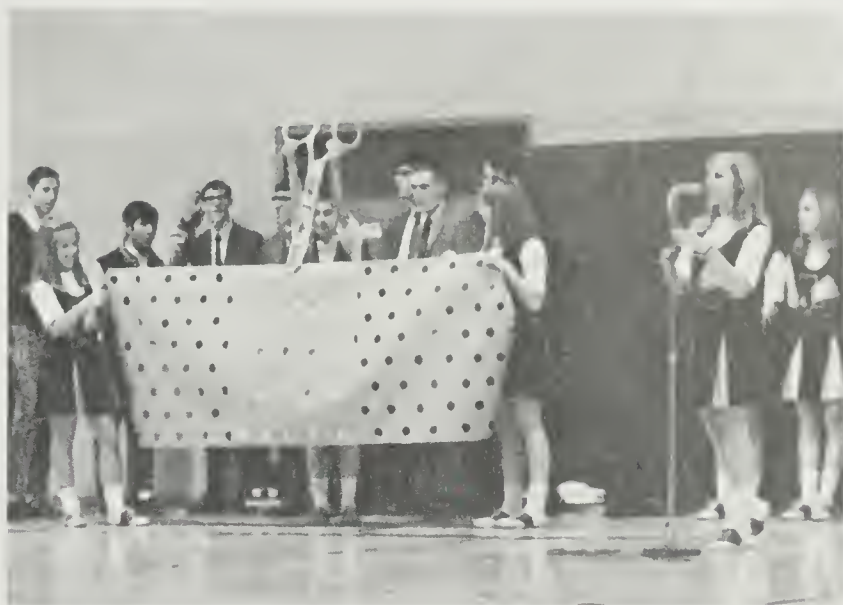

Dwight Hamner, Paul Sisk, and Chris Fox are backed up by our Advisor, Mrs. Mellion, and a Giant Food Store representative.

PEP ASSEMBLIES

Snip, snip

Assemblies this year ranged from the serious to the light-headed. The first assembly of the year was held by the SCA for freshman orientation before school started. In this way the freshmen were introduced to the officers of the student government, the presidents of the various service clubs, and the rules and regulations of Lee. Other important assemblies included the assembly on patriotism during Homecoming week when Mr. Babson, chairman of the Fairfax Board of Supervisors, spoke on the responsibilities of today's youth, and the Christmas assembly at which the band played Christmas carols, Mr. Pfohl sang a solo, and the Madrigals sang. Many pep assemblies were also held during the year, at which school spirit was encouraged through class competition for the pep stick.

MR LANCER CONTEST

This year, Lancer Tri-Hi-Y initiated the new tradition of an annual Mr. Lancer Contest. The girls in the Tri-Hi-Y voted on boys from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes whom they felt most qualified to serve the school as Mr. Lancer. Rehearsals were held every nite in which each of the talent groups practiced for the big nite. On the nite of the contest, the boys were judged for talent, scholarship, coordination, and physique. A trophy was given to the boy with the best legs, Barrett Shiff, one was given for congeniality, Tim Etheridge, and last but not least, Mr. Lancer was crowned, Greg Reed.

LEE THEATRE PRESENTS JUST CAMELOT

Sue Lessman as Guenevere and Jon White as King Arthur.

The presentation of Just Camelot was held on November 22nd and 23rd in the Lee auditorium. It was produced by Mrs. Houston, Lee's Drama Teacher.

Jon White starred as King Arthur, presented as an understanding husband. Sue Lessmann played the part of Queen Guenevere. Lancelot, played by Larry Verner, was Guenevere's lover and King Arthur's best knight. Mike Waring, played Merlin the Magician, the guiding force for Camelot, and Jan Laurents played Nimue, a beautiful nymph. Bill Hanson portrayed the comic character Pellinore, a 14th century hippy. Morgan Le Fay, the fairy queen, was played by Laura McGinty. Tim Hassell portrayed the villain, Modred, and Tom of Warwick was played by Bob Kirk.

This year the lee theatre used a new technique for the production of Camelot, the "Brechtian technique." A film strip and slides were shown while the players acted. The sets were limited and costumes ranged from period costumes to mini-skirts and sweatshirts and jeans. Satirizing all the impractical things about old theatrical productions of musicals, the anti-theatre was a completely unique experience and had something for everyone.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Night's End

Behind the scenes

This year's Senior Play was "Twelfth Night", a Shakespearean comedy. It was directed by Mrs. Meade. The plot centered on the resolving the triangle of love. The main character, Viola, disguises herself as a boy to serve Duke Orsino. Duke Orsino uses him/her to court the Countess Olivia. Olivia falls in love with him/her. Viola rejects the Countess's love for the obvious reason that she is a woman and because her master loves Olivia. When the case of mistaken identity is resolved, Viola marries her master. This situation, plus the complicated antics of the lesser characters, made for a delightful and hilariously funny Senior Play.

The hard work of the Seniors in the play and those who worked on it made "Twelfth Night" a success which will be remembered by all who saw it.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. PARRISH

Robert E. Lee High School moves into its second decade with a record of outstanding achievement. Lee's graduates have distinguished themselves in many fields of endeavor throughout the country and the world. Since the heart of the school is really the student body, we are fortunate to have such a fine group of students enrolled at Lee.

I particularly want to commend the Senior Class for their fine example of leadership - this year. On behalf of the faculty and underclassmen, I want to wish each member of the graduating class well as he departs the Halls at Lee.

William C. Parrish
Principal

MR. BIGLIN

This year, Lee sees a new face in the position of Assistant Principal for Administration, Mr. John Biglin.

Mr. Biglin's primary responsibility is student control, which occupies a great deal of his time. The other duties of the office he holds are writing reports of the school to the state and the county, supervising the use of the school facilities, taking care of bus transportation, and supervising the work of the custodians.

MR. MARTIN

As a result of the overcrowded condition at Washington Irving Intermediate, Robert E. Lee High School has gained 460 eighth graders this year. Along with the eighth graders, Lee welcomes a new assistant principal, Mr. Martin. It is his arduous task to oversee all of the eighth grade departments. Mr. Martin has been pleased with the excellent cooperation that he has received from the eighth grade class, and the administration, faculty and student body of Robert E. Lee High School.

GENERAL NORELL

General Norell is highly respected by both students and faculty. His duties as Assistant Principal of Instruction include ordering textbooks and other teaching materials, obtaining substitute teachers and aiding teachers in any way possible. General Norell plays an important role in the smooth operation of our school.

The Guidance office is an indispensable part of Robert E. Lee. Through this office, students are able to learn about and to solve his own problems. Counselors give advice to students on matters of school curricular, college preparation, and job opportunities. The Guidance office is a veritable storehouse of valuable information for the use of the student body.

SECRETARIES

Mrs. Sara Tilson

Mrs. Dorothy Newell

Into the main office flows much of the responsibility of running a school such as Robert E. Lee. Typing, checking absentees, answering phones, and typing reports are only a few of the jobs allotted to the secretaries. Without the secretaries, many of the high school functions would not be carried out.

The main objective of the English Department is to widen the student's scope of classical and contemporary literature. This has been accomplished by the establishment of advanced classes of Honors English and American Civilization. The English Department is also supplementing its classroom activities with interesting and enjoyable outside activities. The students have helped to plan a Greek feast, Elizabethan banquet and a proposed trip to England. To complete its curriculum, the English Department offers courses in drama, public speaking, traditional English, and creative writing.

This year the Home Ec I classes have prepared a supper for the undefeated Freshman Football Team, a luncheon for the SCA, and have entertained some of the cast in Lee's plays. In a more advanced study, the Home Ec II classes will culminate their curriculum with units on marriage, premarital counseling and visits to area kindergartens.

An unusual project incorporated in the Home Ec II curriculum is the spring nursery. The Home Ec students will host 3 and 4 year olds at Lee. The students will then prepare entertainment and refreshments for their young guests.

Through the study of young children, the Home Ec Department hopes to help the students create a better understanding of themselves.

These students work in office jobs doing shorthand, typing, and other office skills.

DE

Mrs. Frances Justis

With Mrs. Justis as their teacher-sponsor, the Distributive Education students earn money and still go to school each day of the week. These students work in various types of places like gas stations, department stores, etc. Mrs. Justis works with both the students and their employers during the school year. Mrs. Justis received her B.S. from R.P.I. and also attended Smith Deal Massey Business College and U.Va.

The visiting teacher serves Lee High School and the Lee eighth grade as well as the five elementary schools in the same area. She is specially trained to work with children who have mental, physical, and emotional problems. Included in her duties is visiting the homes of children who cannot attend school and if need be, find an at-home tutor. The visiting teacher is a valuable addition to the Guidance Department.

READING

The main purpose of the Reading Department is to further the scope of reading to the students who participate in the course. Things that are stressed are vocabulary study, rate of reading, and the interpretation of the material read.

SCHOOL STORE

Mrs. Sanders

The school store provides students with everything from textbooks to poster paper. School supplies are sold every day during lunches and before school, except Tuesday. Mrs. Sanders also handles and keeps records of club and department funds and pays the school bills.

JANITORS

The responsibility of keeping Robert E. Lee free of trash and in good operation belongs to the janitorial staff. Not only do the janitors work during school hours, but they also have a hand in all of the dances and other extra-curricular activities. Without our trusty crew of janitors, our school would not function properly.

CAFETERIA STAFF

Each day a well organized staff of ladies go about the thankless task of preparing balanced lunches for the student body of Lee. The rewards they receive for their pains are complaints for the student body and a dirty cafeteria. However, the school is indebted to them for their efficiency and competence.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the Honor Society is very selective and was decided upon by a faculty committee using four standards: Leadership, Character, Service, and Scholarship.

The most important service of the National Honor Society was selling books in the Ye Olde Booke Shoppe. The profits made from these sales went into the scholarships given at the end of the year to the most deserving members. The club also donated a book each month to the library, provided a tutoring service for the student body, and posted the Honor Roll after each grading period.

FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY

The French Honor Society is limited to students who have shown merit in the study of French. "La Fleur de Lee", the newspaper, is an important part of the club. Raising money for ALSAC, the international dinner and the visit to a French restaurant are some of the activities of the French Honor Society.

MATH HONOR SOCIETY

First row: Miss Will, John Farris (V. Pres.), Rick Seeker (Pres.), Bonnie Clarke (Sec-Treas.). Second row: Robert Rightmyer, Beth Clardy, Kathy Seeker, Chris Cunney, Barbara Potter. Third row: Rick Whittenberger, Greg Simmermacher, Mark Estes, Barry McVay, Bob Boebel.

Among the various activities of the Math Honor Society this year were picnics to Great Falls, a Christmas party, and a field trip to the Pentagon computer center. The club also acquired guest speakers. Members of the club also gave lectures themselves and competed in interscholastic math contests.

THESPIAN SOCIETY

The purpose of the Thespian Society is to promote dramatic excellence in high school. Thespian members gain experience in the various aspects of the theater, such as lighting, costumes, props, and makeup, as well as acting. They also assist Lee Theater in its productions, and together turn out a stage performance of which Lee can be proud.

ART GUILD

Art Guild is an honor society composed of hard-working, talented art students. The members are chosen on the basis of their art ability, overall grade average, and willingness to work. They strive for the betterment of Lee High School through artistic and creative expression. Some of the Art Guild's activities during the past year include the decorations for the Homecoming Dance, which were very successful, and the November field trip to New York City.

SHIELD

Every day during the sixth period a group of students meet in a small room, isolated from the rest of the school, to create a yearbook for the year 1969. All diligent and hardworking, these students battle deadlines with the weapons of their individual trades pens, typewriters, and layout paper. The result—a yearbook of which the school can be proud.

Bill Kitchens - Editor

The Herald, Lee's literary magazine is a collection of student's thoughts and reactions to life during high school. These thoughts and reactions are collected from the student body in the form of prose, poetry, and art work. The Herald staff then judges, edits, and arranges these works into a sequence which compliments the feelings expressed.

LANCE STAFF

Co-Editors
Tricia Ormsby, Bill Douglas, Kathy Buchanan

The Lance's job is reporting student activities and views. This year, its monthly issues have kept the student body well informed of what their fellow students were doing and thinking. The Lance has given students an opportunity to voice their opinions on many school issues. The Lance has held an important role in stimulating and unifying the student body.

First row: Cathy Gonzales, Cathy McKay, Donna Schumaker, Theresa Jones, Mike Pezzulli, Linda Compton, Kathy Coughlin, Karen Custer, Tricia Ormsby, Kathy Buchanan, Mary Butler. # SENIOR PIPELINE

Co-Editors
Chris Banas, Linda Hudock

The Senior Pipeline keeps the class well informed. Articles recognize deserving students, report on clubs' activities, inform the students about school and class news, and give new facts on college. The staff is composed of students whose job is to seek the who, what, why, where, and when of all the facets of senior life at Lee.

JUNIOR JARGON

Co-Editors
Tricia Ormsby, Emily Moffatt

The Junior Jargon is published monthly. It contains articles on sports and class activities, and the latest gossip. Regular articles consist of editorial comments on student life and a write-up on the student of the month.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America, in compliance with their objective to further their knowledge of the teaching profession, help the teachers at Forestdale Elementary School once a month. Here they can observe the techniques of the teachers and the response of the children to these different styles. The FTA had many bake sales and other fund-raising projects in order to provide a scholarship for one of the club's senior members. The highlight of the year was the trip to the College of William and Mary in the spring.

FUTURE SCIENTISTS OF AMERICA

This year the Future Scientists of America had many interesting guest speakers from various research centers in Washington, D.C. and Ft. Belvoir who gave lectures on new scientific developments. The club planned many intriguing field trips to institutions in the area. They also viewed many new films and the members gave reports which were of interest to the club.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

The activities of the FNA included field trips and lectures. Several members also volunteered as Candy Strippers, Clinic Aides, and Junior Red Cross Aides. The girls thus gained great insight into the varied areas of a nursing career.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The FHA sponsored the Miss Lee Dance, helped the faculty prepare for the Senior Reception, gave a Christmas dinner to a needy family, and provided a senior member with a scholarship. These activities kept the girls busy this year.

DEBATE CLUB

The debate teams were very successful this year. The interpretations of the topic, "The United States should establish a system of compulsory service for all citizens," were different in every school. The Debate Club attended many tournaments in New York, Baltimore, Richmond, and Washington. The team competed in six league debates and one league tournament. At the debate club meetings the new members were trained in the art of argumentative reasoning while the teams practiced.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club seeks to inform its members about international and national affairs. Its members strive for a better understanding of world problems through guest speakers and visits to embassies. IRC seeks to improve international relations through the AFS program. By hosting a student from another country, IRC helps to promote international understanding and good will.

Lee Theater is the staff or people responsible for the technical success of the plays produced and directed by Lebam Houston. Each staff member has been specially trained in his particular field and he and his crew strive to attain the goal set forth by Lee Theater of dramatic excellence.

ART SERVICE LEAGUE

The Art Service League was organized for the benefit of all eighth and ninth grade students interested in arts and crafts. The club was regarded by some students as an extra art class and by others as a half service and half interest club. Their many activities included making murals for the cafeteria, decorating eighth grade bulletin boards, and giving two dances.

SPANISH CLUB

Hola estudiantes! The Spanish Club has been involved in many interesting activities this year. At the International Dinner, The Spanish Club presented a program which included teaching the other language students a traditional Spanish dance, the Cumbia. A Christmas party was planned as a conclusion to December's activities. To begin the new year a trip to the Spanish embassy and to a Spanish restaurant was planned. Interspersed in the year's activities were various bake sales in order to increase the treasury. To end the year, a party was given featuring a Spanish cuisine.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club is fortunate to have gained Silke Maeder, Lee's AFS student from Germany, as a member. She has enjoyed participating in the club's activities which include the International Dinner, planning a Christmas party, and of course, the traditional spring picnic at Great Falls.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The main objectives of the G.A.A. are to promote good sportsmanship and to encourage girls to participate in the many athletic programs offered at Lec. The G.A.A. has sponsored varied activities such as volleyball matches between the teachers and students and the operation of concession stands at basketball games and wrestling matches.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts is an organization which has dedicated a lot of time to the community. Many of their activities were centered around helping children. They have also visited the Meridian House, an international meeting place for foreign visitors. In December they camped out and held a part for underprivileged children.

DRILL TEAM

The Drill Team has been an important promoter of school spirit this year. The Drill Team marched with the Lancer Band in all pregame performances and raised the flag over all home football games. Its half-time performances at many basketball and football games were enjoyed by Lancer fans.

The purpose of the eighth grade pep club is to promote pep throughout the class. During football season the club ordered and sold blue and gold beanies to be worn at pep rallies and during the games. They also made posters to hang in the halls in order to win the pep stick. The annual Valentine's Dance was partially sponsored by the pep club. Future activities include talks by the various coaches at Lee in order to bring school spirit to a higher level.

ASSISTANTS

OFFICE

The office assistants are essential for the smooth operation of the main office. Their many duties include writing passes, checking students in and out of school, running errands, and answering the telephone.

STORE

The school store assistants sell the school supplies, issue textbooks, and take in club money so that Mrs. Sanders will have more time to solve the monetary problems of the various organizations at Lee.

IBM

Working behind the scenes, the IBM assistants work with the machines upon which the school depends. Sorting and juggling computer cards, the IBM assistants help in the operation of this important system.

GUIDANCE

Bearing passes to excited students who welcome freedom from class, typing, answering phones, and organizing the library of college information, the guidance assistants help in forming good relations between the student and his education.

CLINIC

The nurse was grateful to the clinic assistants for their help this year. Their tasks included helping the nurse administer eye, weight, and hearing tests and writing excuses for the students.

LAB

The Lab assistants contributed to the Science Department's efficiency. They performed tasks such as preparing solutions, grading papers, and monitoring classes.

GYM

The gym assistants have been extremely busy this year in helping the P.E. teachers. They demonstrated skills, helped students in Health class, and corrected papers.

August has just begun, and the excitement of the summer is everywhere. The beaches and the pools are overcrowded night and day. However, there are certain familiar faces that are missing from the picture. These faces are those of the football players of Lee High School. Yes, those boys-soon to become men-sacrifice one third of the summer for football. They live, think, and play football from August through early November. They nervously await the final cut after which the serious business begins. They are proud to be recognized as Lancers.

The first game is approaching and everybody is working hard to open the new season with a win. The student body attends the first pep rally and the spirit of the team soars. Coach Ward introduces the coaches and the players, and he names the captains for the game. Friday evening the players don their pads to do battle as the Lancers of Lee High School. For the next nine weeks the same procedure will be followed.

The boys live with their cuts and bruises without complaining. They are the elite of Lee. They give their best for the school, Coach Ward, the people in the stands, and most important, the team. The seniors play their last game for Lee, are thankful to these boys-now men-for giving us memories that will always be with us. We wish them luck in whatever they do and will always respect them for being Lancers.

Coach Baumgartner, "Mississippi", Kevin O'Donoghue

March is usually recognized by its piercing cold winds, but at Lee it has another unique characteristic. The end of winter marks the beginning of baseball season - 'stick ball season' to the elite. It means running line drills in the gym and a new dimension, jumping rope in the halls.

Coach Baumgartner and the Varsity players hope to bring a successful season to Lee this year. Coach Tarlosky also has hopes for his Junior Varsity team. Mr. Baumgartner's Lancer baseball team has worked hard to earn a winning mark for our school this year. Let's hope they can give us many lasting memories.

"Kill it . . . before it multiplies!"

The Hockey season of 1968 was the finest showing in three years. The Varsity Hockey Team finished the year with a good display of teamwork. They ended with a final record of 4 wins and 3 losses which placed them third in district and fourth in county.

The Varsity team was made up of eight seniors and underclassmen. Seven members of the squad were returning lettermen. Lee was strongly represented at Holton Arms, a summer practice camp, by a full and fast team. Then at Woodson on Field Day, Lee worked their hearts out to do well.

The teams ran into many difficulties through the season. Rain swamped the inadequate field and made it necessary to reschedule several games. The Junior Varsity was struck with illness and other unforeseeable circumstances.

The season was an enriching and rewarding experience. The making of friends and interscholastic competition gave a feeling of great accomplishment. Good luck to all those present and past and for those of the future. May there always be the opportunity for this type competition!

There's more to college than just books.

Bills, for instance.
But talk to the team
at the Pacesetter Bank.

We'll loan you the money you need for the education you need.
